Enhanced HSC Success for All Students

Dear students and families of Year 12.

Congratulations to all students in Year 12. Your high levels of engagement in class learning, the quality completion of assessment/class tasks and consistently high attendance continue to strengthen your opportunity of securing an outstanding Higher School Certificate result. Well done.

This term we are continuing to drive a set of programs that will strengthen your knowledge and skills in preparing for the HSC examinations. It will be important to engage each of these opportunities:

Teacher Student Parent Conferences

Monday 17 August

3:30 – 6:00 pm

- All students and parents will enjoy quality personalised feedback
- Student performance data will inform dialogue
- An opportunity for students and parents to seek specific advice

Examination Experience Week

Commences Thursday 3 September

A series of HSC type examinations to provide experience, build skills and assess understanding

- Student will engage rigorous learning
- Examination performance will provide the opportunity for quality feedback

Explicit Final Weeks Program

Students and parents provided with a published detailed description of all lessons

- Class learning focussed upon the reading/writing demands of the HSC examinations
- Revision, testing and continued feedback

The HSC HUB

- Provides quality learning beyond the classroom experience
- All students have been provided with access to these resources
- It is regularly updated with amazing material for most subjects

Best wishes to all HSC students and families as we all move toward the HSC examinations in October.

Yours sincerely,
