Please forward this information to interested parties within your school.

This situation will be regularly reviewed and updates provided. We thank you for your understanding during this time.

We have no information at this stage as to whether everything is postponed or cancelled altogether- this is a very fluid situation and we will bring all information to you via here and schools as soon as we are able.

We cannot at the moment answer questions in regards to refunds, or state merchandise availability, but we do ask that if you have yet to pay your swimming levy for CHS or PSSA that you refrain from doing so at the moment.
